ENGLAND WINS 4TH TEST

BY TWELVE RUNS

AUSTRALIA'S TOTAL REACHES 326 AT LUNCH

CHANCE OF "RUN OUT" MISSED

STOP PRESS CABLE:—

Adelaide, To-day.—England beat Australia in the Fourth Test Match by twelve runs.—Reuter.

Twenty-two runs to tie or twenty-three to win, and two wickets to get them. That was Australia's position when the lunch interval was called to-day, the seventh day, in the Fourth Test Match at Adelaide. In the morning she scored 66 runs, steadily approaching England's total, but lost two batsmen in doing so, and the score reached 326 runs for eight wickets.

Play was very exciting. It could not help being so in the closing stages of a memorable game. Every run had to be fought for and England's men were keen as the proverbial mustard in the field—especially after that costly dropped catch by White yesterday, which allowed Ryder to make a great deal of difference to the fortunes of the game.

Tate at Fault
The attendance was 6,000 and the weather sweltering when Bradman (16) and Oxenham (2), the overnight not outs, resumed.

Hard patches were developing in the pitch—a factor in England's favour.

When only 10 runs had been scored (with the total at 270), Bradman (his own score 26) should have been run out, states Reuter. Tate made a poor return from the field.

Forty runs were gathered tensely and the 300 was signalled after the innings had lasted six hours and seven minutes.

Chapman & Hobbs
Then Oxenham was out. Chapman made a brilliant catch, low down, at mid-off, fiddling to White. Oxenham's contribution was 12. Seven wickets down for 308. Three wickets to fall and 40 runs to tie.

With the total at 320 (28 more to tie), Bradman was dismissed by Hobbs, fiddling at cover-point as usual, making a brilliant return to Duckworth, the wicket-keeper. Bradman's score was a valuable 58, made in two hours and 18 minutes and he hit four fours. It was a magnificent effort, says Reuter.

Oldfield and Grimmett stayed in until the interval and took the score along to 326. Lunch interval scores:—

"WANTED"

CHINESE EXTRADITION
SOUGHT IN COURT

"THE LAW'S DELAY"

The Chinese whose extradition is sought by the authorities at Hainan for alleged defalcations, made another appearance in the First Court at the Central Magistracy this morning.

Mr. E. J. Wynne-Jones was the presiding Magistrate, in the absence of Mr. R. E. Linsell, who is still indisposed.

Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, Assistant Attorney-General, told the Magistrate that according to the documents received from the Governor-General of Indo-China, the defalcations amounted to $95,000. In one instance the defendant was alleged, on December 22 last, to have credited a sum of $22,000 to a man who had been long dead.

Counsel added that the papers received from Indo-China did not bear the seal of the Minister of Justice. In the circumstances he could not proceed with the case immediately, and must ask for another week's remand, in order to send to Indo-China for the necessary seal to be affixed.

Defence Objects
Mr. F. H. Loseby, for the defence, objected to the application. He said that the documents arrived here fully 14 days ago, whilst his client had been detained since before Christmas.

Mr. Fitzroy said that the papers had been in the Colonial Secretary's Office all the time since their arrival.

Mr. Loseby replied that they were not concerned with departmental delays. Mr. Fitzroy had said at a previous hearing that he had seen the papers and had advised the Governor to make an order. He thought that the case should proceed.

His Worship gave a week's remand.

"NOW DESIRABLE"

HIS MAJESTY ABOUT TO TRAVEL SOUTH

FIVE DOCTORS CONSULT

London, Yesterday. The following official bulletin was issued from Buckingham Palace to-day:—

"Though the stage of convalescence has not yet arrived His Majesty's progress is such that the proposed change to the south coast is now desirable."

It is understood that the phrase "Now Desirable" means that the King will be moved almost immediately.

Five doctors were at the Palace for nearly two hours to-day, discussing the choice of a suitable date for the journey which will, however, depend largely on the weather.

No bulletin regarding the King's health was issued this evening.—British Wireless Service.

Medical Press Comment
The "British Medical Journal" and the "Lancet" both comment on His Majesty's progress, due to the ray treatment, and state there has been a slight gain in weight and a definite increase in strength. His Majesty sat up on two occasions with benefit to his health and spirits.—Reuter.

GREEK RIOTS

LIVELY DOINGS IN CITY OF ATHENS

CHAIR-THROWING, ETC.

Athens, Yesterday. Forty-two Communists were wounded and 12 sent to hospital as the result of a fight at a demonstration in the Apollo Theatre.

The trouble began when provincial delegates, mostly Marxists, accused the Athenians of not sufficiently protecting Communist interests.

They backed up their protests by cutting off the light, throwing chairs from the gallery of the assemblage down below.

A stampede ensued and the fighting continued in the streets, revolvers, knives and cudgels being used by the police in restoring order.—Reuter.

BIG LOSS

ARMSTRONG, WHITWORTH RECONSTRUCTION

SHAREHOLDERS' HEAVILY HIT

London, Yesterday. Capital and other losses, totalling over £14,000,000, are shown in the reconstruction scheme of Armstrong, Whitworths, under which the capital obligations henceforth will be reduced from £22,000,000 to approximately £6,000,000.

This means the writing down of various categories of stocks and shares which will be very drastic in the case of the ordinary shareholders, who will receive a one shilling share for every £2 share they now hold.—Reuter.

WORLD COURT

EX-SENATOR ROOT TO GO ON IMPORTANT MISSION

Washington, Yesterday. It is understood that Mr. Elihu Root has been authorised to undertake an unofficial diplomatic mission to seek and secure an understanding among world Powers on the reservations which the United States has made to joining the Hague Court of International Justice.

This is interpreted as portending to another move to take the United States into the Court.—Reuter's American Service.

DUCHESS OF YORK

LONDON, YESTERDAY.

A bulletin issued at the Duchess of York's Piccadilly residence, states that the Duchess's influenza is running its normal course and necessitates her Grace remaining in bed.—Reuter.

U.S. CRUISER BILL

WASHINGTON, YESTERDAY.

The House of Representatives has approved the Cruiser Bill.—Reuter's American Service.

As a light engine crashed through some level-crossing gates at Grimby, a tramcar was pulled up within six feet of the line.

REDS PLAN NEW YEAR OUTBREAK

HONG KONG BUILT GUNBOAT'S HELP IN CAPTURE

"VARSITY GIRL" AT KONGMOON

Only recently completed in Hong Kong, the "Varsity" gunboat "Chung Yuen" has performed useful service for the Canton Government by taking part in the capture of Communists at Kongmoon who have been accused of plotting a rebellion to break out on New Year's Day (the day after to-morrow) and have been summarily shot.

Eight persons were arrested, three of whom are known to have returned from Moscow recently. One of the eight was a woman who formerly studied at the Chungshan University, Canton.

Bloodshed Intended
Information obtained by the Canton authorities showed that the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party of China had instructed important members of the secret provincial and metropolitan committees to establish "cells" at Kongmoon, in the West River delta and up the West River, and to rally bandit and dissatisfied peasant groups, with a view to a desperate challenge to the Government.

Plans disclosed show that the Reds intended to mobilise in time for China New Year Eve in readiness for bloodshed on Sunday. A strong force was sent from the Garrison Commissioner's headquarters and have been summarily shot.

NOT SO COLD

Whereas the temperature at 6 a.m. yesterday was 48 degrees, the official reading at the same hour to-day was 54. At 2 p.m. yesterday it was 58.

"N.E. winds, moderate; overcast." is the forecast for Hong Kong and the adjacent coast until to-morrow. For the Formosa Channel it is:—"N.E. winds, fresh."

At 11.30 a.m. to-day the Observatory reported:—"The anticyclone over China has weakened slightly. Fresh to moderate monsoon may be expected along the S. E. coast of China and over the China Sea."

PT. JAMES BOYLE

FURTHER PROCEEDINGS AT THE MAGISTRACY

NO NEWS OF KERR

Private James Boyle, of the King's Own Scottish Borderers, held by the police for a considerable time in connection with the wounding of Sergeant A. Kerr of the same regiment on board H.M. Transport "Somersetshire" on the night of October 19-20 last, made an appearance before Mr. E. J. Wynne-Jones at the Central Magistracy this morning.

Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, Assistant Attorney-General, said that he had proposed to ask for Boyle's commitment to the February Criminal Sessions. The case was originally taken by Mr. R. E. Linsell who was not in Court therefore, Counsel asked for 24 hours' remand for Boyle to come before Mr. Linsell to-morrow.

If the latter was not there then, Counsel would ask for Boyle's commitment, and if the latter wished to go to the February Sessions, no obstacles would be placed in his way.

Nothing further was known of the Sergeant whom Boyle was alleged to have stabbed. He appeared to have been in a bad way, but in spite of that Counsel did not think it fair to make Boyle wait any longer. If he were committed to the February Sessions, the case would proceed without the evidence of the Sergeant on a charge of causing grievous bodily harm. Should the Sergeant die of his injury within the prescribed time limit, Boyle would have to face a murder charge.

The remand was given.

Divided by the number of the population these figures became $170. 6s. and $6 16s. respectively.—British Wireless Service.

FOUR LAKHS MORE

HUMPHREYS ESTATE AND FINANCE CO.

MAY ROAD FLATS

Four more lakhs have been invested in property by the Humphreys Estate &amp; Finance Co., Ltd., making a total of $2,588,506.42. On Dec. 31, 1928, it was announced to-day at the annual meeting of shareholders, held in the Hong Kong Hotel, when reference was made to the May-road and other flats.

Mr. Henry Humphreys (chairman) presided. He was supported by Mr. J. Scott Harston, Mr. W. L. Pattenden, Mr. C. G. S. Mackie and Mr. J. M. Alves (directors) and Mr. G. Rapp (secretary). Shareholders present were Messrs.—C. Bulmer Johnson, J. D. Humphreys, L. S. Greenhill, M. Manuk, Kwok Hin-wang, D. E. Clark, O. Kitchell, Lo Kin-fai and B. L. Seton-Winton.

The secretary read the notice convening the meeting. The report and accounts for 1928 were taken as read. The chairman said: "The net profit for the year shows a decrease of $9,462.26. The increase in the item 'Repairs' amounts to $5,340.11. We had a number of flats vacant in Kowloon at different times, the interiors of which had to be painted and coloured washed for incoming tenants."

You will probably have noticed, with satisfaction, that during the year under review we have not had to make any inroad on our Typhoon &amp; Floods Insurance Fund and only to a small extent on our Special Repairs and Renewals Account.

New Flats
Our new four Special Repairs were completed in July last and occupied in August. They are provided with a lift and have given general satisfaction. They form part of a plan for eight flats but owing to the circumstances prevailing at the time it was decided to proceed with four flats only. I hope it will not be long before we complete the original scheme. Our flats on May Road are always in request.

Amount invested in Property shows the large increase of $408,818.87 due to two causes—the addition of eleven houses on Kowloon Inland Lot 575 and expenditure on May Road flats. As regards K.I.L. 575 the property was formerly mortgaged to us, but as the mortgagee defaulted in his interest payments the Board decided to resume Reserve Fund.

I trust you will approve of the proposed transfer of $50,000 to Reserve Fund.

I now propose that the report and statement of accounts, as presented, be adopted and passed. After the motion has been seconded I shall be pleased to answer any questions shareholders may have to ask.

Mr. L. S. Greenhill seconded. No question was asked. The chairman's motion was carried unanimously.

Other Business
Re-election of Mr. J. Scott Harston, Mr. W. L. Pattenden, Mr. J. M. Alves and Mr. C. G. S. Mackie to the board—proposed by the chairman, seconded by Mr. O. Kitchell.

Re-election of Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth &amp; Fleming and Messrs. Linsell &amp; Davis as auditors for the current year, at a fee of $250 for each firm—proposed by Mr. M. Manuk, seconded by Mr. D. E. Clark.

BANK OF ENGLAND'S INCREASED RATE

NOW 5½ PER CENT.

THE CAUSE OF THE RISE EXPLAINED

SPECLATORS' RUDE SHOCK

London, Yesterday. The raising of the bank rate from 4½ to 5½ per cent. was not altogether unexpected. Since last September, when the Bank of England's stock of gold stood at the high record of 176½ millions sterling there has been a continuous drain of gold, first on account of Germany and recently for New York.

Within five months approximately 25½ millions sterling of gold have gone out of the country but a large proportion of this, which has gone to America, has had no perceptible effect on the rate of exchange with New York.

Excessive speculation on New York stock exchange has forced up money rates at that centre and while they remained considerably above those in London, fear of gold withdrawals from here remained.

There have been no indications of a slackening of speculative activity in America despite attempts to check it, and the Bank of England is therefore obliged to protect itself.

The Bank of England directors also had to look ahead to the Autumn months when this country had to make heavy payments to America for grain, etc.

The Bank has therefore to replenish its gold reserve during the Spring and Summer months, and although it was hoped this might be accomplished with a 4½ per cent. bank rate, it is evident that conditions abroad have forced the hands of the bank.

The bank rate has not been as high as 5½ since 1921.

Effect in London
Considerably larger crowds than usual awaited in the lobby of the Bank of England in view of expectations of an increased rate due to the withdrawal of £2,800,000 in gold from the bank to the United States during the past two days and as a result of this gold held by the Bank of England has fallen below the £150,000,000 which is regarded as the amount Great Britain should hold on her amalgamation note issues.

The announcement of the first change for nearly 2 years caused a stampede to the nearest telegraphs and telephones.

Business men deprecate the increase, especially by a whole point, but generally recognise it is necessary to arrest the violent speculation going on here and abroad.

While the new rate prejudices industry it is hoped the advance will have the desired effect quickly, so that the rate can be reduced shortly.—Reuter.

BATCH OF SUSPECTS

SEQUEL TO THE $40,000 ARMED ROBBERY

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

The twelve Chinese men and three women arrested by the police in connection with the $40,000 armed robbery at No. 10, Lower Castle-road, were again before Major C. Willson, O.B.E., at the Central Magistracy this morning.

In connection with the five men and one woman charged with having been concerned in the actual robbery, Detective Inspector Shannon asked for a week's formal remand in police custody. When the other seven men and two women, charged with conspiracy in connection with the robbery, were brought into Court, the Inspector asked leave to withdraw the charge against all the defendants with the exception of one of the men, who was defended by Mr. F. E. Nash. This man his Worship remanded for a week with the other six prisoners.

In accordance with the last expressed wish of Mr. N. H. Barber, architect, one of his champion wire-haired terriers was led in his funeral procession at Newport (Mon.).

"POO ON CHINESE HERBS DID ME MORE GOOD AFTER THREE WEEKS' TREATMENT THAN ANY OTHER DOCTORS AND HOSPITALS DID FOR $5,000"

Mr. W. T. Hamilton suffered nearly three years and spent about $5,000 for doctors, hospitals, change of climate, and travelling thousands of miles to find a cure for his ailment but failed until he found and took the Poo On Chinese Herbs. He was cured and his wife and other relatives also received benefit from the Poo On Chinese Herbs.

W. T. Hamilton, a prominent rancher of Salida, P. O. Box 77, Salida, Stanislaus County, Calif., U.S.A., gives the following testimony of the great relief Poo On Chinese Herbs have given to himself and his family.

"My trouble and disorders started three years ago. At that time I was living in Alberta, Canada. My saddle horse reared up and fell back on me, and seemed to sprain every muscle in my whole body. Shortly after that rheumatism started to set in and I suffered terribly all over.

"I was able to walk into a hospital in Canada and stayed there for some time. I would have died there if I had not induced friends to CARRY me out. It seemed that nothing they were doing to me did me any good; instead of getting better I was getting worse. I went to the hot springs and secured temporary relief. I tried travelling and the change of climate for my health. I went to Spokane then down to Tilden Health School in Denver, Colorado. There they tried starving me but that did not do any good either. I went from there to Los Angeles hoping that the good climate I had heard of there might relieve me, but I was getting worse all the time.

"I was then weighing 224 pounds which was all unhealthy fat. My body was swollen all over. I couldn't stoop over to do a thing, not even to lace my shoes. At nights the pain was even worse than during the day. I suffered continually and my legs and feet were swollen all the time.

"I came to Salida about January, 1922. Soon my wife heard about the Poo On Chinese Herb Treatment and began taking them for female trouble and malaria. She showed such marked signs of improvement that I decided that the Poo On Chinese Herbs would help me. About the tenth of March I started taking the Poo On Chinese Herbs. Within three weeks I felt myself a well man again in every way. All my rheumatism and pain were gone. All my bloated condition left me and I lost about 35 pounds which was unhealthy fat; also my dropsical condition, and obesity. The greatest thing about the results I have had from the Poo On Chinese Herb is that the cure has made itself evident from the fact that I have felt myself going up the ladder instead of getting worse again as I have always felt after I had had a little relief from Canadian and American Doctors.

COLLISION AT SEA

PROBLEM OF APPORTIONMENT AND COSTS

ADMIRALTY PROCEDURE

In the case of the two Liverpool vessels, the "Monksville" and the "Herculeanum," in collision in Swansea Bay, reported in "The Journal of Commerce" on December 6, the question of costs was reserved for argument.

As it was a case where blame was apportioned ("Monksville" three-fourths, "Herculeanum" one-fourth), the President's subsequent decision in the Admiralty Court on costs is worth noting by practitioners in the Admiralty Court, for the old rule of costs, in these circumstances, is not being followed to-day, and various and uncertain consequences may follow since Mr. Justice Hill, from the modern point of view, reviewed the costs procedure in the Modica two years ago.

Mr. Noad (for the "Monksville" (found three-fourths to blame), asked the President to follow the principle of making no apportionment of the costs; Mr. Dunlop, K.C., for the "Herculeanum," said he could not ask the court to give the "Herculeanum" all her costs, but the plaintiffs should be made to pay at least half of them.

Counsel were for the plaintiffs, Mr. Lewis Noad and Mr. R. Adams, instructed by Messrs. Charles Lightbound and Co., Liverpool, and for the defendants, Mr. C. Robertson Dunlop, K.C., and Mr. Alfred T. Bucknill, instructed by Messrs. Hill, Dickenson and Co., Liverpool.

The collision was one of those difficult cases, as the President found, of crossing ships and the stand-on rule. There have been three or four such cases of late, and in one of them the President reserved his judgment in order to put precisely in writing what he felt was the duty of the ship on which the regulations imposed duty of action only when the other looked to be incapable of avoiding collision alone.

In the present case, the "Herculeanum" said they were crossing vessels (as the Judge held); the "Monksville" that they were approaching starboard to starboard, and the "Herculeanum" ported at 300 feet. The Judge found that the "Herculeanum" was to keep course and speed, and the "Monksville" to keep out of the way. The latter did not do so, and the "Herculeanum," he thought, in the difficult position of the hold-on ship, delayed her emergency action too long. He said she kept course and speed practically up to the moment of collision. He consulted the Elder Brethren, and the Elder Brethren, Mr. Dunlop recalled, advised that she should have acted earlier. He asked that the defendants should be awarded half their costs. Mr. Justice Hill, in the Modica, held that costs in such a case were in the discretion of the judge, and in the absence of special circumstances would follow the event. From the examination of a series of cases since he drew the conclusion that had been a general practice in the Division of late, with vessels found to blame in this proportion, to apportion costs and award the defendants half their costs.

Previous Cases

Mr. Noad agreed that it was impossible to separate the issues, and there should be no costs apportionment. He said the "Monksville" was making up to the Mumbles lightship, showing morse lights, in an endeavour to get orders, and did not see the "Herculeanum," and the "Herculeanum," which came on at speed, at the last put her engines full ahead. There had been cases where a vessel which had acted as the "Herculeanum" had acted as been found to blame, though he did not suggest an appeal in the present case. Roanoke, in 1908, laid it down that where a vessel was engaged in a manoeuvre which the other could see, it was the duty of the other vessel to take action. The "Herculeanum," he submitted, was wrong in holding on, and in attempting at the last moment to cross the bows of the "Monksville."

The Judge, in his judgment, said the question was whether the old practice of costs with distributed blame, which was an easy practice to apply, should be resorted to here, or whether the more difficult, but he thought better practice should be of looking into the finding and being guided by it to an apportionment of costs. The "Monksville" failed in their substantial allegation of facts, and the "Herculeanum" substantially succeeded in their broad allegation of facts. He had to take account of that in considering the incidence of costs. Underlying the distribution of blame regard had to be had to the facts proved by both parties. But for that, there would be grounds for putting the major part, at any rate, of the costs of the proof of facts on the plaintiffs. He did not propose to do that, but, bearing in mind that the plaintiffs put up an erroneous case, and that on the broad issue of facts they were beaten, and bearing in mind that the "Herculeanum" was found to blame in a smaller proportion, he held that the plaintiffs should pay one-third of the defendant's costs. He decided it would be disadvantageous to make a more minute order as to costs.

TIMBER SHIPMENTS

FREIGHTS FOR THE NEXT SEASON

It is stated that Swedish timber cargo exporters have informed a Sundsvall newspaper that many firms still have large quantities of wood cargo and paper which ought preferably to be shipped in the present season. In the third week in December about 70 ships were still being expected in the district of Sundsvall, 40 ships in the district of Hernösand, and some ships at Kramfors.

Commenting on the above statement, "Norges Handels og Sjøfartstidende" remarks that the fact that it is admitted that there is still a considerable quantity of cargo which it is desired to be shipped during the remainder of the present season should be borne in mind when the question of entering into fixtures for next season arises. In this connection, the Norwegian newspaper states that it wishes to point out that freight proposals are already being circulated from a certain source for the next Baltic timber season shipments. The rates offered are absurdly low.

It seems to be obvious, the newspaper continues, that it will be difficult for ship expenses for bunker coal to be much more reduced. The conditions are such that many British pits have had to shut down, while others have had to amalgamate in order to pull through. German and Polish coal is naturally not sold at lower prices than are sufficient to meet the competition of British coal. Under the circumstances shipowners must be prepared not to expect any important reduction in the prices of bunker coal. Also in the matter of other items of expense there are still no tangible proofs of cheaper working in the next season. If fixtures are entered into early, the newspaper remarks that owners will be playing into the hands of charterers, as with this the latter would get some of their risks transferred and could afford to wait longer for further charterings, so that they would be able to depress the market. The longer shipowners wait before contracting, the more accommodating charterers will become as they must have their cargo shipped. Having regard to the non-shipped cargo being brought over into the new season, the newspaper considers that there should be every reason for expecting remunerative timber cargo freights in 1929, the only question being for shipowners to hold together and plainly refuse low offers.

Four unemployed men—Poland, Cullen, McKenna, and Kirkbride—received £10 each and a certificate from the Carriage & Ferry Fund at Margate for rescuing a woman and four children from a burning house.

The Sai Kong (or the West River) is the third largest river in the Chinese Republic and second only to the Yangtze in importance. This magnificent trade route was opened to foreign traffic in 1897, but how many foreigners travel on this important waterway? The scenery along the route is beautiful. We recommend it to any person who wishes to spend a short and economical holiday.

"HENGCHONG" WRECK

Notice has been given that the s.s. "Hengchong" lies sunk in Lat. 31.41N. Long. 122.18E. The wreck is a steel steamer, 253 feet in length, and 1,110 tons register. On Jan. 24 two masts were showing about three feet above water.

The proposed fusion of interests in specific departments of Vickers, Ltd., Vickers-Armstrong, and Cammell Laird and Co. has given rise in Sheffield to rumours of probable closing of some of the works, but it is understood, that the policy will be one of concentrating production in those particular units of the joint concerns where production is more economically and efficiently carried out. Where, say, the steel foundry at one works is sufficiently large to execute the orders of the joint works, the foundry workers of the one concerns will be concentrated in the one foundry and continuous production will bring down costs and stimulate trade.

The chairman of Vickers, Ltd., Sir Herbert Lawrence, states the amalgamation will benefit everyone, and no unemployment will be caused.

HONG KONG TIDE.

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kaulung tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Dobson during the years 1897, 1898 and 1899.

The times and heights are given for Kaulung; but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.
The times of high and low water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

RIOTS—AND MORE RIOTS

There must be—one might be excused for thinking—"something in the air" that is causing so much simultaneous rioting at the present moment. During the past few days the cable service has had news of this sort of a most alarming character. First, it was exclusively of the racial,
religious or industrial troubles—(it is not precisely clear yet what it really is all about)—existing between the Hindus and Pathans in Bombay. Large numbers of those well-known races—neither of whom are native to the Bombay Presidency, the Hindus being Bengalis and the Pathans Afghans—seem to have conceived a very serious grudge against each other. And evidently they intend to "fight it out" and though both are at bitter enmity with each other, judging by what has happened, they seem united in their antipathy towards the police when they are interfered with. A European inspector of police, in attempting to rescue sorely pressed Pathans, was stoned by them,
one stone inflicting such damage
that the unlucky officer died shortly afterwards in hospital.
Evidently the present trouble between the rioters is more industrial rather than racial or religious; but if the deeply regrettable affair does not quickly subside, it will probably develop into a combination of all three with, of course, disastrous results. All lovers of decency and decorum, of no matter what religion, will devoutly hope that the Hindus and Pathans at loggerheads will soon conclude that a much better way might easily be found of arriving at a friendly understanding. If the Indian political agitators would turn their attention to settling this distressing riot they would by doing much better work than they usually do and would really be benefiting at least a section of their fellow-countrymen.

The rioting in Colombo, though evidently in no way tainted with racial, political, or religious feeling—being wholly industrial—seems to be quite as acrimonious
so far as the Police is concerned.
Plainly, in Ceylon as elsewhere
"the policeman's lot is not a happy one," as in that muggy city labour rioters appear to be chiefly concentrating upon policemen and police quarters in easing their excited minds. How they hope—if they have any such hope—of reaching a happy ending of their industrial troubles by smashing the heads of the Police with stones, is of course rather a conundrum; but that they have a violent detestation of the Police—(commonly shared by law-breakers and criminals generally)—is very apparent. It is likewise to be hoped that, as with the misguided ones in Bombay, the Sinhalese, or "whoever may be responsible" for the Colombo rioting, will soon come to their senses and regard the Police as their true well wishers who are in no way antagonistic towards them.

The third body of rioters, whose barbarous conduct has been blazoned to the world, comes nearer to ourselves—even though both Bombay and Colombo are parts of the Empire—for the latest riot has happened in Wales in one of the many collieries
there. It also appears to be exclusively industrial and in this profoundly regrettable affair the Police have again come in for a decidedly severe time. But that they have not taken the attack
"lying down" is very evident.
We are told that they twice "baton-charged" 500 men and women who had been intimidating four workers. Somewhat unpleasant details are added, all going to show that the incident was of a very exciting character.
Mob psychology is very much the same in every country, for when the passions are inflamed the
"are out" and people who normally act rationally and humanely
then behave more like wild animals. The police baton and when things take a more serious turn, the soldier's bayonet would seem to be the most effective correction for such obdilitions.

Resolution is the language of the civilized man and it is on the resolution of the rioters that the peace of the community depends.

meaning and interpretation of it,
that almost all our astronomical developments depend. Radiation is our sole means of communicating with the vast spheres which lie before us, said the Earl of Bel-four. To us "messages radiate from limitless space" Lord Balfour continued, to be "interpreted through earthly instruments." Are these not the symbols of the radiation of spirit which are radiating eternally throughout space?

Yesterday evening two armed robbers made a raid on a flat at
No. 138, Queen's-road West, occupied by a Chinese widow and her maid servant. The two women were surprised in the kitchen at about 5 p.m. The men drew daggers and quickly overpowered their victims, binding and gagging them. About $300, in cash was taken from the widow's person, after which the desperadoes ransacked the flat, stealing jewellery worth $365 and two drafts on the Tai Yau Bank for $4,200 and $600, respectively.
They escaped after being about an hour in the flat.

Kipling has been contradicted.
—East and West met in Wyndham-street this morning,
although the blending cannot be said to be perfect. A Chinese youth, dressed in European style, was the centre of attraction by sporting a black Chinese skull cap with a little red knob, in place of the conventional felt hat. It speaks much for his nerve that he was unconcerned at the stares directed at him. He strutted down the street with the air of being "monarch of all he surveyed."

A Chinese married woman named So Luk-chan (25) living at No. 251, Lai-chikok-road, reported to the police that at 4.15 a.m., yesterday, whilst she was asleep, two robbers broke into the house. They gagged and bound her and an amah, the only people on the premises at the time, and then ransacked the place, getting away with money

at about 2 p.m., he with another coolie named Shui Choi were bottom of the bucket fell out and Shui Choi was badly scalded about the hands and legs. He was removed to hospital.

A correspondent writes that a grey bearded Cantonese is bowed down with grief in Shanghai.
He lost seven sons and five grandsons in the ill-fated s.s. "Heinto Canton to spend China New Year. The old man sits on the wharf steps for hours during the day gazing into the water and grieving.

WHAT JUDGE SAID

Colton (California), Jan. 6.
On New Year's Day Mr. Healy,
a Justice of the Peace, accompanied by two other officers raided
an establishment and arrested Mr.
Venigas, the proprietor, on a charge of possessing liquor.
Mr. Healy to-day sat as judge to try the case.
Mr. Venigas asserted that the officers planted the liquor in his house.
"You are a liar," shouted Mr.
Healy.
That is contempt of court, reported Mr. Venigas.
So it is, cried Mr. Healy, and he fined him $100.

CONCERT ITEMS

MUSIC AT HELENA MAY INSTITUTE

ORGANISER'S SUCCESS

A programme comprising songs and piano solos was presented at a concert held at the Helena May Institute, Garden-road, yesterday.
The vocalists were Mrs. Sanger,
Mrs. Carnegie and Miss Dunbar, accompanied, respectively by Miss C. Braga, Mr. F. Mason, and Mrs.
Hargreaves-Browne, whilst the pianist was Mrs. Cashman.
Mrs. Sanger, the possessor of a fine soprano voice, opened the programme with Massenet's
"Elegie" and "Vissi d'Arte" from "Fosca," in which she was heard to advantage. She further pleased the audience with "Payche" and Saint Saens' "Mon Coeur S'ouvre
a ta Voix," in both of which she was successful.
Mrs. Carnegie had much scope for her fine contralto voice with Cattford's "Sea Moods," but she was not heard to such advantage in "Life and Death" by Coleridge-Taylor. Her songs in the second half of the programme were in lighter mood and quite successfully rendered. These were Brewer's
"Fairy Pipers" and "The Lilac Tree."

Charming Voice

Miss Dunbar offered four American Negro "Spirituals" arranged by Rosamund Johnson.
These quaint songs were delightfully suited to her charming voice, and were well received. In the second half Miss Dunbar sang Debussy's "Mandoline" and the "Lamento" by Duparc.
Mrs. Cashman's piano solos added much to the variety of the programme. She played Paderewski's Variations from Op. 15, exhibiting astonishing command of the keyboard. Her playing of Chopin's Berceuse was also delightful, and then followed Messiaen's C-minor Scherzo, which was also charmingly rendered.

As an encore she played Debussy's "Cathedrale Engloutie," which rounded off her contributions well.

LIGHT OPERA

MR. STERLING MACKINLAY'S HISTORY

What is light opera? one wonders, as one opens Mr. Sterling Mackinlay's book, and one is rewarded with an answer in the first line. In "The Origin and Development of Light Opera" (published by Hutchinson at 10s. 6d.) he tells us it is a unity comprising four elements: "marriage, poetry, music and drama, and without more, do he takes us to the valleys of ancient Greece, whence he asserts that it had its origin. A beginning, to show that the true Scots spirit, at which Dr. Gaster pokes his pleasant railway in the pages of Pausanias, is still very much alive.
The author, however, though his purpose, his historical method, with out flinching, keeps his eye on the present, even whilst surveying the past. He is a man of the theatre, and he is a man of the theatre.
He is a man of the theatre, and he is a man of the theatre.

MRS. MIAO

BODY BURIED YESTERDAY AT POKFULAM

END OF SAD TRAGEDY

The body having been brought to Hong Kong from England by the Blue Funnel s.s. "Calchas," the funeral took place yesterday afternoon at the Chinese Christian Cemetery, Pokfulam, of the late Mrs. Chung-yi Miao (nee Siu Waisheung), the "Murdered Bride,"
who was the daughter of a Macao
Chinese millionaire.

The Rev. C. L. Cheung officiated
at the graveside.

There was a large attendance at the funeral, the cortege leaving Queen's Pier at 4.30 for the Cemtery. The chief mourners, were Messrs. Siu Pui-lau, Siu Pui-ching, Si Pui-chik, the brothers of the deceased and her three younger sisters and one older sister. Others present were Lady Ho Tung, Mr.
and Mrs. M. K. Lo, Mr. K. L. Chau, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Tan, Mrs. Chang Tin-tau, Mr. S. W. Liang, and many others.

Wreaths were sent by the Staff and Students of the St. Stephen's Girls' College, General Yeung Him-man (former Civil Governor of Canton), Dr. Wan Yick-shing, Mrs.
Mok Kon-sang, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie
Chen, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Leung, Mr.
J. M. Wong, Mr. Ho Sai-kit, Dr.
S. To Wong, the Chung Shan Hospital and others.

Mrs. Miao, it will be recalled, was strangled by her husband whilst on their honeymoon at Grange in Borrowdale, near Keswick, on June 19 last. Her body was found in Cumma Catta Wood. Subsequently
her husband, Dr. Chung-yi Miao (28) was convicted of murder and executed at Strangeways, Manchester. The couple were married in New York.

cheered by something amusing before being sent home. As proof that our reactions are very similar to those of the old Greeks, he quotes a playbill from the Theatre Royal, Marylebone, to show that almost within living memory the same close connection persisted between grave and gay, serious and light. For after Mr. Macready had played Macbeth to Mrs. Warner's Lady Macbeth "The Spoiled Child" was given. So, too, at the Royal Surrey Theatre in 1848 a "Grand Ballet" followed "Richard III."

Launched on his entrancing theme—for what form of entertainment has given so much pleasure to so many generations of men?—Mr. Sterling Mackinlay cleaves gallily through the sparkling waters of light opera. How many shades it has may be seen from the chapter headings.

A Wide Field
Italian Opera Buffs—Comedie
Vaudeville—Opera Comique—Operetta—Romantic Opera—Orchestral Comedy—Swedish Sagooper
—Comic Opera—these are a few.
But each chapter is more or less a separate entity, and the English reader can turn straight to Gilbert and Sullivan with the author's full approval. There we find a sanely critical appreciation of their contribution to the art, although the cause of the rupture between the collaborators is laid too emphatically on Gilbert. Mr. Flower's Life of Sullivan made it plain that the composer, taking the conventional view that he could only win the immortal bays through "serious" music, was unaware both of the musical value of the Savoy operettas and of

SCHOOL PRIZES

ANNUAL DISTRIBUTION AT FRENCH CONVENT
INTERESTING REPORT

The Rev. Fr. Byrne, S. J., distributed the prizes at the French Convent School (St. Paul's Institution), Causeway Bay, yesterday afternoon, in the presence of His Lordship the Rt. Rev. Bishop H. Valtorta, D.D., and a large gathering of parents of the students and friends of the school.

The Head Mistress' report of the working of the school during the past year was read as follows:

There are no very special features to report on the school year of 1928.

The work in the different classes and the usual activities of the school have continued steadily during the past year, and the results on the whole have been quite satisfactory.

The highest number on the roll was 260 which is an increase on that for the preceding year. The annual inspection took place on October 25 there being 247 pupils present, and the Inspector's Report was not only gratifying, but very encouraging both to pupils and teachers.

Special mention was made of the scrupulous cleanliness of the premises which—as the Inspector remarked—was in itself an object lesson. It would be well, perhaps, to mention here that the usual medical inspections were carried out in June and in December by Doctor S. S. Strahan whose reports also show the excellent sanitary conditions of the classes and dormitories and the consequent good health of the pupils. It was also reported that the discipline was excellent—the various sections of English were good throughout the school and that the Kindergarten class was efficiently conducted.

Local Examination Results

The results of the local examinations were as follows:—9 pupils out of 18 in the Junior Class obtained certificates with five distinctions; four out of five in the Senior Class passed, and one pupil presented for Matriculation passed with honours.

As a result of the quarterly examination held in Class III in December the Lugard Scholarship has been awarded to Stella Xavier.

The Ho Kom-tong silver cup is presented this year to Miss Rose Perry for the matriculation certificate.

Rev. Mother Superior, the Head Mistress and staff, wish to thank all those who have kindly helped to procure the prizes and also all the parents and friends for sympathetic co-operation during the past year.

Father Byrne's Address

Addressing the gathering prior to giving away the prizes, the Rev. Fr. Byrne said:—Some days ago I saw in one of the papers that I was to distribute the University certificates to the girls who had been successful in the recent examinations. I am happy to say that this is not the case, first because I sympathize with the very small group of University workers who have to deal with the results of 1,256 students and who, however anxious to make the school happy, could not have all the certificates ready, but principally because I am thereby saved the trouble of having to apologize for my failure to congratulate the successful candidates. I know that examinations loom large on the school horizon, I know that the public are prone to judge the efficiency of the school by the tabulated results of the Senior and Junior passes and the distinctions gained, I know that the candidates themselves, unless they intend entering the University, exclaim on that happy morning of success announced: "Thank God, I've done with lessons: arithmetic and geography for the scrap heap, now I'm beginning life!"

Examinations

It is just because, from an experience of over thirty years of educational problems, I know these things that an instinctive dislike of examinations makes me hesitate about congratulating examinees purely as examinees. But I do heartily congratulate the girls who have finished their school course in the French Convent, because I know that their school has done far more for them than prepare them to meet examiners' conundrums. Yes, girls, I do congratulate you, on behalf of all those present as well as on behalf of your absent friends, on having finished a course of training which is happily symbolised in the charming little play which you have staged. Your teachers have worked hard to teach you history, to teach you geography and an accomplishment which, I hope, will survive, when algebra shall have been forgotten, music. But they have laboured much more by the devotedness of their lives to make you realise that education is worth while for your after-life is the education which teaches you to drop pearls of kindness when you speak to others, when you work with others, when you can even rise to the noble generosity which makes you happier to bring sunshine into other lives than to have it in your own.

The Successful Hostess

Those of you who are leaving school to settle in the world will soon have to assume the role of hostess. I have heard it said that a successful hostess is the lady who can make her guests believe that she is interested in them and their conversation. A rough and ready test, often a useful one, but your education has surely given you a higher ideal. Success is a very dangerous standard of appreciation. The man who has deceived his fellows may be a success in business but he is a bankrupt in the ideals of manhood. The lady who can assume an angelic smile for the guest whose character she has just blackened may be known as a charming hostess, so genial and bright, she is certainly not an ideal one. You are facing life with nobler aims. Your ideal if these years of training have counted, is to make others feel that you are interested in them, because you are. To use an old illustration, like the bee you will look for the honey in the flower of character, you will not, like the beetle, search for the stings which the manure heap may have cast upon it. Remember children, that every flower unless it be dead, has its little drop of honey and the most fragrant vase of perfume known to us was the gift of a woman whom the world once despised.

"Not True"

A priest of wide experience, who afterwards became Archbishop of Bombay, Dr. Porter, in a Retreat preached to ladies in London, in 1884, said:—

"Do not let yourselves be told that your intellects are not as capable as men's. It is not true."

Your intellectual outlook may be different: in many things it should be different. But those of you who have studied in Geometry the properties of complementary angles know that you do not speak of the superiority of one over the other but of their harmonious issues which their combination provides. The Catholic Church has chosen St. Thomas as the patron of Theology but she has placed her Philosophers under the mantle of St. Catherine.

The names of few scholars are so familiar to-day as the name of Charles Darwin, who was a man of keen intelligence. Yet, he confesses that he had lost all taste for literature, for music and that his mind had become a machine for grinding out laws. The glow of the heart had been chilled. If pure religion does one thing it is "just to visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation; and to keep one's self unspotted."

This lesson you have learned at school. It was said that love is an interlude in a man's life, but that it is the substance of a woman's. Cupid has an unenviable reputation when he shoots his arrows from a novel. There is a Cupid, a noble one, who lingers in the leaves of a prayer-book. If you have graduated in school in the love that is strong, because it is noble and pure, you bear with you a certificate which will make your lives a success because it will make other lives happy.

The students of the school presented a very pleasing programme of music, speeches and recitations which were greatly enjoyed by those present, and reflected great credit on those taking part as well as the good sisters who were responsible for their training. At the conclusion, His Lordship Bishop Valtorta, who presided at the function, on behalf of the sisters, expressed thanks to those who contributed prizes, and to others who during the year had given assistance to the school in one form or another. The gathering was also thanked for their presence.

Thursday was the Birthday of the Celestial Dragon, according to the ancient prescriptions which determine the milestones in the Chinese calendar, says the "N. C. Daily News" to hand. A Chinese lady of middle age, who, had she lived in England would have dutifully attended the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, shuffled along the Bund from Avenue Edward VII till she came to a halt at the entrance of the Hong Kong & Shanghai Bank. She carried an umbrella in one hand, and from the other cascaded a shower of paper scraps representing quite a small fortune of silver. Laying it carefully on the pavement beneath one of the bronze lions, she knelt and made the prescribed number of kowtows, applied a match and watched the flames ascend to the Celestial Dragon to whom the tribute was paid. Passers-by hesitated, smiled, and walked on. In a few minutes, her litany ended, she rose, collected herself, and unsmilingly made her way back home.

Shanghai School Teacher Tells How His Little Ones Have Been Helped By BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

Mr. Li Tsien Tsang is teacher of English at the Tai Lu Public School, Avenue Dubail, Shanghai.

"My child, Shih Mei," Mr. Li writes, "frequently suffered from indigestion, diarrhoea and colds, which caused him restless nights, fretfulness and loss of his playful spirits until I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and thus succeeded in restoring the boy to health. He is now no longer fretful, but is active, plump and lovely. I have also given Baby's Own Tablets to my second child, Shih Tieh, and he likewise is strong and healthy through the use of them."

Baby's Own Tablets are a simple, pleasant and absolutely safe remedy for children's stomach and bowel troubles. They make teething easy and painless, quickly cool feverishness, check diarrhoea, relieve cramp and colds, expel worms. Your chemist sells them, or post free, 60 cents per vial, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

NOTES ON INTERPORT WEEK

Hong Kong's Forward Strength Against Shanghai

[By "Rover"]

The soccer programme for to-morrow is restricted to 2nd division League matches as, owing to the rugby Interport between Hong Kong and Shanghai on the H.K.F.C. ground, the Hong Kong Football Association have postponed all senior matches. Fixtures are as follow:—

H.K. Amateur Football League, Division II—kick-off 2.45 p.m.

1st Bn. Queen's R. Regt. v. Club de Recreo, Chatham-road, Kowloon.

Royal Navy v. South China "B," R.N. ground, Happy Valley.

Small Units v. St. Joseph's College, Chinese ground, Happy Valley.

Royal Air Force v. Royal Artillery, King's Park, Kowloon.

Kowloon F.C. v. Chinese Athletic, Kowloon F.C. ground.

South China "A" v. Eastern F.C., Caroline Hill.

Kowloon Seniors have, in addition, arranged a friendly at Kowloon v. H.M.S. "Suffolk," kick-off at 4 p.m., the restriction as to Friendly Senior matches not extending to the Kowloon side.

The matches in the 2nd division should enable both the Queen's Regt. and Royal Navy to add to their League points with good wins.

Small Units may find the St. Joseph's a much improved side and I rather fancy St. Joseph's will secure full points.

R.A.F. should beat the R.A.

South China "A" may beat Eastern. The best match of the day should be the meeting of Kowloon and Chinese Athletic and there will be a big struggle for the points in this match as Kowloon Reserves are fielding a very useful eleven and are at present playing a good game.

The big event in the local soccer world is the Interport on Monday, on the Hong Kong F.C. ground at Happy Valley, kick-off at 3.30 p.m. The probable teams are:—

Hong Kong

Clarke (Police);

Wynne (Police);

Bishop (Hong Kong F.C.);

Remedios (Recreo);

McKelvie (Kowloon F.C.);

Lam Yuk-ying (Chinese Athletic);

Burkham (Royal Navy);

Fung King-cheung (South China A.A.);

Gosano (Recreo);

Suen Kam-shun (Chinese Athletic);

Chan Kwong-ju (Chinese Athletic).

Shanghai

David (Recreation Club);

Palmer (Reco);

Wilson (Reco);

Pote-Hunt (Shanghai F.C.);

S. V. Gash (Police);

Costa (Portuguese S.A.);

Favacho (Portuguese S.A.);

Sinclair (S.F.C.);

Pte. Wright (1st Bn. Northants Regt.);

Turner (S.F.C.);

L. F. Stokes (S.F.C.).

The Shanghai XI, has been definitely selected, but the Hong Kong team cannot be regarded as final as five reserves have been nominated and the Committee will make their final selection at the last moment, weather conditions having to be taken into consideration on the day.

The match is bound to attract a big crowd and the chances should be very open, although I still think Hong Kong will win on the strength of the forwards, who are all very familiar with the Club ground. Our visitors arrive this week-end. They will probably have a kick around before Sunday and should be in good trim by Monday when their display will be watched with great interest.

Shanghai's team contains many new "caps" and critics speak very highly of the half-back line which has, apparently, been very careful-

TILDEN AND HUNTER GOING ABROAD

INTERNATIONAL TOUR

New York, Yesterday. W. T. Tilden and F. T. Hunter are going abroad on May 8 for an international lawn tennis campaign.

W. T. Tilden

Neither will play in the Davis Cup matches in the American zone—Reuter's American Service.

The cable, be it noted, states that Tilden and Hunter—who would normally have been included in the U.S.A. team without a doubt—are not to play in the American zone. Will they be chosen, or available, if America reaches the inter-zone final or challenge round? Tilden, it will be recalled, was debarred by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association for writing about a match he played in.

F. T. Hunter

After Their Record-Breaking Flight

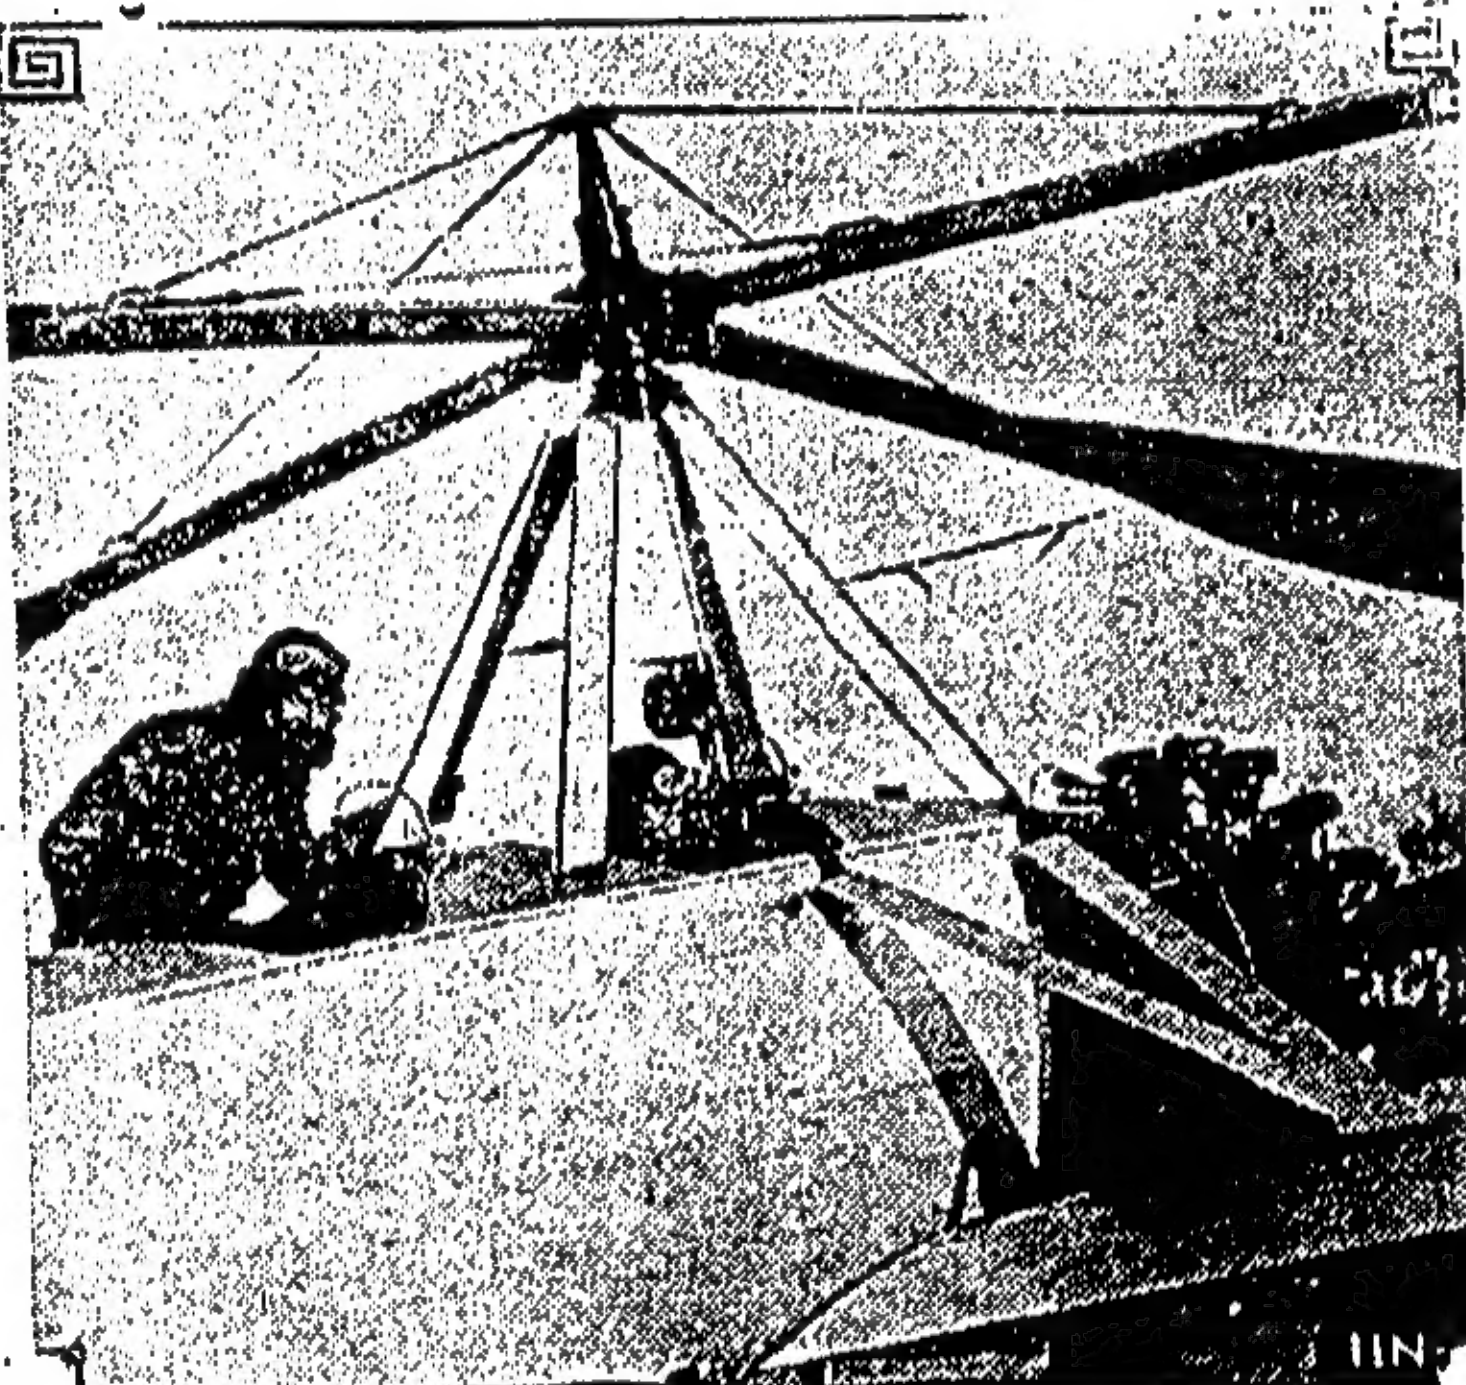

Photographed immediately after landing of the "Question Mark," members of the gallant crew had a little difficulty in regaining their land legs after nearly a week among the clouds. ### DORIS HILL

TO PLAY CRIPPLED GIRL IN DANIEL'S PICTURE

Doris Hill, leading woman in "Tell It To Sweeney" and several other screen comedies, will play the crippled girl in "Take Me Home," Bebe Daniels' new starring production, it was announced at the Paramount studios, Hollywood.

Mrs. Hill broke into movies when a casting director saw her dance in a Los Angeles theatre. Leads opposite Syd Chaplin in "The Better Ole" and "The Missing Link" followed, and shortly after the completion of the latter production, she was given a Paramount contract.

Marshall Neilan is directing "Take Me Home," and in the cast are Nell Hamilton, Lilyan Tashman, Joe Brown and Marcia Harris.

MY BEAUTY RECIPE

(By Mary Brian, Paramount Player)

Early to bed.
No parties.
No cosmetics.
Plenty of exercise.

Those four things go to make up my recipe for a beautiful face and an attractive figure.

I am so set in my mind that those factors are essential to good looks that I am occasionally the butt of humorists and have been called a "prim old maid." I'm not old, neither am I prim but I believe that I have some intelligence, that I am right in keeping myself fit by following a rigid gymnastic course.

At nine o'clock every evening, whether I am working, or not, little Mary is in her bed. I generally read for half an hour before I turn out the lights. I refrain from any social affairs in the evening, but attend many afternoon functions during my between pictures period.

I was born lucky, as regards the need for cosmetics. During the early part of my life, I lived in Texas, where I rode and kept in the open as much as possible. That put a glow in my cheeks which has never vanished, because I still love the open and will stroll for hours through the parks of Los Angeles and Hollywood—or in the country where fruit trees are blossoming. Whether I am different from other girls or not, I do not know, but I will say that when I am away from the studios and the cameras lip-stick, rouge or powder never touch my face.

Those long walks give me some exercise, but not enough, and at least half an hour every day is devoted to strenuous workouts in the studio gymnasium, where I have learned to handle the Indian clubs like a professional, and I also fence.

ADOLPHE MENJOU

WOOS OWN WIFE IN FINE FILM

After years of becoming involved in intrigues with other men's wives on the motion picture screen, Adolphe Menjou has turned to wooing his own wife.

Menjou has long specialized in polished forms of wickedness and made a lot of friends while doing so. He started the delightful habit, on the screen, of inviting an irate husband to have one of his cigarettes, just after the husband had threatened to throw him out of the house for making love to a wife.

Now, in his new Paramount picture, "His Private Life," the sophisticated star finds himself desperately pursuing his own wife, and driven to distraction when she spurns his attentions. The girl he woos so earnestly is not a motion picture wife, but his bride in real life. Kathryn Carver, whom Menjou married in Paris last May, is his leading woman in the production.

Doris Kenyon

The film star, whose husband is Milton Sills.

Fencing is one of my favorite forms of recreation. I learned the art of my first picture, "Fate of the Pan," when the instructor from the Los Angeles Athletic Club trained several girls in the work for some of the scenes.

Girls, keep regular hours; get to bed early and rise early; don't cover your face with powder and rouge, and exercise—and you'll never regret it.

COLOURED PHOTOS

A FEATURE OF "WEDDING MARCH"

All the splendour of European court life, almost overwhelming in its lavish richness, is shown in Erich von Stroheim's first Paramount picture, "The Wedding March," produced in Los Angeles under the sponsorship of P. A. Powers.

Some of the most colourful scenes ever shown on the screen are promised in "The Wedding March," and the added fact that many of them have been reproduced in colour photography insures that theatre-goers will see them in all the gorgeousness of the originals. The glittering pageantry of the Austrian court at Vienna is shown in sharp contrast to the sordid life of the peasants—for von Stroheim has not entirely abandoned his penchant for stark, sudden realism.

In "The Wedding March" the famous director also plays the leading role of Prince Nickl, described as "neither a hero nor a villain, but a combination of the two"—an average human being who is a true product of his environment.

Von Stroheim's picture has an excellent supporting cast including Fay Wray, Zasu Pitts, Dale Fuller, Maude George, George Fawcett, Matthew Betz, George Nichols, Hughie Mack, Cesare Gravina and Sydney Bracey.

RUSSIAN ACTRESS

Bacanova's first Western screen role shows her as a dancer in Zane Grey's dramatic Paramount picture, "Avalanche," adapted from his fortieth novel of frontier life.

The towering mountains of the Painted Desert of Arizona were furthest from the thoughts of the noted Russian actress when she was a player with the Moscow Art Theatre. Even when she signed a long term contract at the Paramount studios in Hollywood, she had no idea that she would ever be placed among real cowboys and real, live Indians.

Except for the difficulty she encountered in acclimating herself to breathing in 13,000-foot altitude at which Jack Holt, Doris Hill, herself and other members of the "Avalanche" company worked for three weeks, Bacanova enjoyed the experience thoroughly.

Emil Jannings' "The Street of Sin," Pola Negri's "Three Sinners," "Forgotten Faces" and George Bancroft's "The Docks of New York" are pictures in which she has scored heavily.

A BY-ELECTION RESULT

SOUTH-BATTERSEA

A GAIN FOR THE LABOUR PARTY

CLOSE STRUGGLE

LT. KNOWLES

BRITISH OFFICER'S FATE ESTABLISHED

TAKEN TO BE A SPY

Lieutenant Knowles was mistaken by the Kirin troops as a Shansi spy and shot with his donkey driver at Sungchihkou, a village in Hual Hsien on or about October 25, 1927.

This is the gist of the findings of Chinese members of the joint Sino-British commission which left Peking last September for districts to the west of Peking and Shansi in an effort to lift the veil over the mysterious disappearance of the young officer of the British legation guard.

Went On Hunting Trip
The findings say it will be recalled that shortly after the commencement of hostilities between Mukden and Shansi toward the end of September, 1927, Lieutenant Knowles left the city on a three-weeks' hunting trip to the regions west of Peking but when his leave expired, he failed to return. A search immediately was launched but owing to the military operations which were then going on between the contending Chinese factions, nothing came out of the investigation.—"N. C. Standard."

It is officially announced that the state burial of the remains of Dr. Sun Yat-sen has been postponed to June 1, so as to allow time for the completion of various preparations, especially the construction of the Chungshan memorial highway, work on which has been considerably delayed by bad weather.—Reuter.

A verdict of misadventure was returned at a Hull inquest on Hilda Pinder, 40, who was fatally injured when she fell from a stool on which she had been standing in order to hang some holly on her brother's photograph.

HANKOW RATEPAYERS' RESOLUTION

GOVT. ACTION ASKED

Hankow, Yesterday.
The meeting of those interested in the affairs of the two former Special Administrative Districts of Hankow, Nos. 1 and 2 (as one time the German and Russian Concessions), passed a resolution endorsing the views of the British Chamber of Commerce of Hankow and further recording that the meeting was of the opinion that the Hupeh Provincial Government's action (in making the two S.A.D.'s parts of the Municipality) were unlawful, and that steps should be taken to secure recession.

Grave Danger
The resolution continued:—"In view of the grave dangers to which property owners and ratepayers are exposed, this meeting calls upon the Governments interested to make the most urgent representations to the National Government of China and take steps to secure effective protection for their respective nationals, and their rights."

An international representative committee of five members was appointed by the meeting for the purpose of keeping in touch with the Chinese authorities for the meantime, until a satisfactory settlement of the question of the administration of the two S.A.D.'s can be obtained.—Reuter.

AN "EMPEROR" SET UP WITH A CAPITAL

FLAGS AND EVERYTHING

Nanking, Feb. 8.
According to a special despatch to the "Chin Pao," an outlaw by the name of Ma Hsi-wei proclaimed himself emperor at Chowtsun, in Shantung, on February 2. Chowtsun, a small village near Chanshan, was made the capital, and yellow flags, formerly the royal standards of kings, hoisted.

During the early years of the republic, a secret society was organized in that district, known as Yi Sin Tang, Chin Ti Hui, and Fan I Tao at various times. Ma, who is the leader of the group, is an old man of over 60 years of age. It is reported that the members of the society have to hand over their land and property to the society, and the food and clothing of the members and their family are provided for by the society. Its influence is gradually spreading towards Wantai, Tzechuan, Poshan, Chowping, Ling-tze, and other districts in Shantung. Many Red Spears and peasant armies have joined the society.

SUN FO'S SCHEME

6,000 MILES NEW RAILWAYS IN CHINA

BOXER INDEMNITY FUNDS

Nanking, Feb. 2.

At a reception given to newspaper representatives by Mr. Sun Fo, Minister of Railways, the public and the press were urged to give their fullest support to a proposal submitted recently by Mr. Sun to the State Council of the National Government for approval, which provided for the issuance of $408,500,000 worth of loan bonds for the construction of railways. It is proposed that part of the increased customs revenues and the Boxer Indemnity Funds be used as securities.

The total mileage of the new lines is estimated at between 5,378 and 6,102 miles, and the total cost between $751,521,827 and $863,329,627. The proposed railways are to be completed within six years.

Four Periods

The construction programme is divided into four periods. During the first period, the lines connecting Canton with Hankow, Tunghai with Kaolan (Lunghai), and Tsangchow with Shihchiachuan are to be completed. The second group of railways to be constructed are those connecting Nanking with Hunan, Nanking with Canton, and Canton with Yunnan. In the third period, construction work will begin on lines connecting Pootou with Linghsia, Tsinan with Taokou, Chengtu with Chungking, and Tatung with Puchow. The last line to be constructed is that running from Chingchow, in Kwangtung, to Paoching, in Hunan.

The total payment to the British, Russian and Italian Boxer Indemnity Funds up till 1949 will reach $267,143,812. According to the proposal of Mr. Sun, the annual payments may be used as a sinking fund for educational purposes, and part of this sum may be loaned to the Ministry of Railways by instalments for construction of the proposed new railways.

Customs Revenue

According to the proposal of the Ministry of Railways, if the increased customs revenue at the end of 1929 exceeds $15,000,000 and is under $20,000,000 at least $10,000,000 is to be set aside for the railway reconstruction fund. Beginning from 1930 up till 1943, each year $20,000,000 is to be set aside.

It is estimated that $139,000,000 will come from the Boxer Indemnity Funds within three years, and $270,000,000 from the increased customs revenues. With this amount, $408,000,000, it is expected that 2,537 miles of new lines may be constructed, and that the total mileage of China's railways will reach the figure of 8,981. It is stated that the required funds for the construction of the remaining 2,841 miles of railways can be raised by other means.

ment authorities from interfering with its activities, the society presented to General Chang Chung-chang, when the latter was the governor of Shantung, 64 gold bars and more than $100,000 in cash. The money was supposed to be a contribution to the military hospital fund. After the Tsinan Incident, there was a rumor that Ma agreed to pay $30,000 every month to the Peace Preservation Society at Tsinan, presumably for the organization of additional police units to maintain peace in Tsinan.

SPEEDING

PASSING A COLUMN OF TROOPS TOO QUICKLY

At the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, Mr. H. C. Lee was summoned before Mr. E. W. Hamilton for the alleged dangerous driving of a motor car.

The summons was taken out at the instigation of the Officer Commanding the Queen's Royal Regiment, who alleged that the defendant failed to slow down while passing a column of the Queen's Regiment on the march on Tai-po road on December 22 last; this in spite of the fact that a picket ahead of the Battalion had given him the signal.

Lieut.-Col. Fensomby, in evidence said that the car passed the column at a speed which he estimated at 36 miles per hour.

The defence, conducted by Mr. G. S. Hugh Jones, was that the car might have been going at 18 or 19 miles per hour, and Mr. Lee admitted that he saw men of the regiment carrying red flags, but that did not convey anything to him until he saw the whole Battalion coming along, then the car was stopped.

His Worship accepted the evidence for the prosecution, and imposed a fine of $25. Defendant had a previous conviction, in July last, for speeding.
